AUSTIN — Today, Texas Land Commissioner Dawn Buckingham M.D. encouraged Texans to vote for the Alamo Exhibit at the Ralston Family Collections Center as the "Best New Attraction in America" in the USA TODAY 10Best Readers' Choice Awards. The Alamo Exhibit has been nominated for this prestigious award that not only recognizes incredible attractions and businesses, but also provides these locations as recommendations to readers for future experiences.

Voting is open to the public. Individuals can vote once a day until December 25th at USATODAY.com.

Working together, we can help future generations Remember the Alamo and ensure visitors from around the world can learn about and share the rich history of this historic landmark.

The GLO works in partnership with the City of San Antonio to preserve and promote this Shrine of Texas Liberty. As the steward of all state owned land, the GLO understands the importance of preserving not only Texas' natural resources but also her history, starting with the Alamo.
